Genesis tells us that our world began with God's wind sweeping over the waters.

God spoke and then our world existed—the sun and the stars, the plants, the animals, and the people. God told the first man and woman to care for everything He made, including the beautiful garden in Eden. God created Adam and Eve to be partners, to have good relationships with God and each other.

This book tells a story of God's amazing creation but also explains the disaster of human sin. Adam and Eve didn't follow God's command. God sent a giant flood, but saved Noah in an ark that floated on the rising waters. Then God made promises to Abraham and his children as the first of God's new people. God sent this faith-filled follower on a daring journey from the distant city of Ur to Canaan, the land that is now Israel.

Genesis also tells the story of Joseph, a boastful young man who was sold as a slave by his brothers. God made Joseph a leader in Egypt, which made it possible for him to save Egypt and then his family from famine. In the end, Joseph and his brothers became friends again.

Genesis says that God created the world—and the stories show why. God wants to be connected with all people—including you! ✨

World’s creation in seven days

When God began to create the heavens and the earth—1 the earth was without shape or form, it was dark over the deep sea, and God’s wind swept over the waters—2 God said, “Let there be light.” And so light appeared. 4 God saw how good the light was. God separated the light from the darkness. 5 God named the light Day and the darkness Night.

There was evening and there was morning: the first day.

6 God said, “Let there be a dome in the middle of the waters to separate the waters from each other.” 7 God made the dome and separated the waters under the dome from the waters above the dome. And it happened in that way. 8 God named the dome Sky.

There was evening and there was morning: the second day.

9 God said, “Let the waters under the sky come together into one place so that the dry land can appear.” And that’s what happened. 10 God named the dry land Earth, and he named the gathered waters Seas. God saw how good it was. 11 God said, “Let the earth grow plant life: plants yielding seeds and fruit trees bearing fruit with seeds inside it, each according to its kind throughout the earth.” And that’s what happened.

12 The earth produced plant life: plants yielding seeds, each according to its kind, and trees bearing fruit with seeds inside it, each according to its kind. God saw how good it was.

13 There was evening and there was morning: the third day.

14 God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night. They will mark events, sacred seasons, days, and years.” 15 They will be lights in the dome of the sky to shine on the earth.” And that’s what happened. 16 God made the stars and two great lights: the greater light to rule over the day and the smaller light to rule over the night. 17 God put them in the dome of the sky to shine on the earth. 18 to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. God saw how good it was.

19 There was evening and there was morning: the fourth day.

20 God said, “Let the waters swarm with living things, and let birds fly above the earth up in the dome of the sky.” 21 God created the great sea animals and all the tiny living things that swarm in the waters, each according to its kind, and all the winged birds, each according to its kind. God saw how good it was. 22 Then God blessed them: “Be fertile and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth.”

23 There was evening and there was morning: the fifth day.

24 God said, “Let the earth produce every kind of living thing: livestock, crawling things, and wildlife.” And that’s what happened. 25 God made every kind of wildlife, every kind of livestock, and every kind of creature that crawls on the ground. God saw how good it was. 26 Then God said, “Let us make humanity in our image to resemble us so that they may take charge of the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the livestock, all the earth, and all the crawling things on earth.”
27 God created humanity in God’s own image, in the divine image God created them, male and female God created them.

28 God blessed them and said to them, “Be fertile and multiply, fill the earth and master it. Take charge of the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, and everything crawling on the ground.” Then God said, “I now give to you all the plants on the earth that yield seeds and all the trees whose fruit produces its seeds within it. These will be your food. To all wildlife, to all the birds of the sky, and to everything crawling on the ground—to everything that breathes—I give all the green grasses for food.” And that’s what happened.

God saw everything he had made: it was supremely good.

There was evening and there was morning: the sixth day.

2 The heavens and the earth and all who live in them were completed. On the sixth day God completed all the work that he had done, and on the seventh day God rested from all the work that he had done. God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all the work of creation. This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

World’s creation in the garden

On the day the Lord God made earth and sky—before any wild plants appeared on the earth, and before any field crops grew, because the Lord God hadn’t yet sent rain on the earth and there was still no human being to farm the fertile land, though a stream rose from the earth and watered all of the fertile land— the Lord God formed the human from the topsoil of the fertile land and blew life’s breath into his nostrils. The human came to life. The Lord God planted a garden in Eden in the east and put there the human he had formed. In the fertile land, the Lord God grew every beautiful tree with edible fruit, and also he grew the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

A river flows from Eden to water the garden, and from there it divides into four headwaters. The name of the first river is the Pishon. It flows around the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold. That land’s gold is pure, and the land also has sweet-smelling resins and gemstones. The name of the second river is the Gihon. It flows around the entire land of Cush. The name of the third river is the Tigris, flowing east of

Why are the trees important in the garden of Eden? Genesis 2:9

In the second story of creation, we read about two trees that were planted in the garden of Eden. One tree, sometimes called the tree of life, had fruit that would make whoever ate it live forever. The fruit on the other tree, sometimes called the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, gave the person who ate it self-awareness and knowledge about life.

Although humans had work to do in the garden, they also had freedom to do as they pleased as long as they didn’t eat fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. You may know what happened next. Eve and Adam did what they weren’t supposed to do. They ate the fruit from the forbidden tree. Rather than being protected from the knowledge of everything good and everything evil, they gained knowledge meant only for God. They didn’t have the wisdom to handle this knowledge.

This story reminds us that like Eve and Adam, we’re all human. We’d all like to have the knowledge God has. But we don’t have the wisdom to handle it. Like Eve and Adam, we do the wrong things and make bad choices. Even so, God forgives us, continues to love us, and stays with us as we try to live as God’s faithful people.
Assyria; and the name of the fourth river is the Euphrates.

15 The Lord God took the human and settled him in the garden of Eden to farm it and take care of it. 16 The Lord God commanded the human, “Eat your fill from all of the garden’s trees; 17 but don’t eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, because on the day you eat from it, you will die!” 18 Then the Lord God said, “It’s not good that the human is alone. I will make him a helper that is perfect for him.” 19 So the Lord God formed from the fertile land all the wild animals and all the birds in the sky and brought them to the human to see what he would name them. The human gave each living being its name. 20 The human named all the livestock, all the birds in the sky, and all the wild animals. But a helper perfect for him was nowhere to be found.

21 So the Lord God put the human into a deep and heavy sleep, and took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh over it. 22 With the rib taken from the human, the Lord God fashioned a woman and brought her to the human being. 23 The human said, 24 "This one finally is bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh. She will be called a woman 25 because from a man she was taken." 26 This is the reason that a man leaves his father and mother and embraces his wife, and they become one flesh. 27 The two of them were naked, the man and his wife, but they weren’t embarrassed.

Knowledge, not eternal life

The snake was the most intelligent of all the wild animals that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say that you shouldn’t eat from any tree in the garden?"

2 The woman said to the snake, "We may eat the fruit of the garden’s trees but not the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden. God said, ‘Don’t eat from it, and don’t touch it, or you will die.’"

3 The snake said to the woman, "You won’t die! God knows that on the day you eat from it, you will see clearly and you will be like God, knowing good and evil. "4 The woman saw that the tree was beautiful with delicious food and that the tree would provide wisdom, so she took some of its fruit and ate it, and also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. 5 Then they both saw clearly and knew that they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made garments for themselves.

6 During that day’s cool evening breeze, they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden; and the man and his wife hid themselves from the Lord God in the middle of the garden’s trees. 7 The Lord God called to the man and said to him, “Where are you?” 8 The man replied, “I heard your sound in the garden; I was afraid because I was naked, and I hid myself.” 9 The Lord God said, “Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree, which I commanded you not to eat?”

What does the snake represent?

Genesis 3:1-15

The snake in the garden asked Eve the question that she and Adam had probably been thinking about. “Did God really say that you shouldn’t eat from any tree in the garden?” So Eve was tempted by the snake’s offer. Who wouldn’t want to see clearly and be like God? When Eve and Adam ate the fruit, they realized they were naked and needed to find some clothes. And since they were ashamed of what they did, they hid from God when God came looking for them.

The snake wasn’t some strange creature that came into the garden. The snake was there all along. Think about a time in your life when you were trying to figure out what to do. Perhaps like Eve there was something whispering in your ear, telling you what to do, and part of you knew it was wrong. That’s like the snake speaking to Eve. The snake represents the temptation everyone faces to make poor choices.

Like Eve and Adam, we have choices to make in life. God knows us, loves us, and supports us as we try to make right choices.

Genesis 3:12

12 The man said, “The woman you gave me, she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate.”
13 The Lord God said to the woman, “What have you done?! And the woman said, “The snake tricked me, and I ate.”
14 The Lord God said to the snake, “Because you did this, you are the one cursed out of all the farm animals, out of all the wild animals. On your belly you will crawl, and dust you will eat every day of your life.
15 I will put contempt between you and the woman, between your offspring and hers. They will strike your head, but you will strike at their heels.”
16 To the woman he said, “I will make your pregnancies very painful; in pain you will bear children. You will desire your husband, but he will rule over you.”
17 To the man he said, “Because you listened to your wife’s voice and you ate from the tree that I commanded, ‘You will not eat from it,’ cursed is the ground because of you: in pain you will eat from it every day of your life.
18 Weeds and thistles will grow for you, even as you eat the field’s plants; by the sweat of your face you will eat bread—until you return to the fertile land, since from it you were taken; you are soil, to the soil you will return.”

God’s Special Gift  Genesis 3:1–24

Have you ever disobeyed? Adam and Eve did.

When God put Adam and Eve in the garden, God gave them everything they needed—food to eat, water to drink, sunlight to keep them warm, and soft grass to sleep on at night. God gave them love and visited with them every day.

God also gave Adam and Eve a special gift, something they couldn’t see or feel. It was the gift of free will, which is the right to choose to obey or disobey God. God wanted Adam and Eve to show love by obeying, but their free will meant they had a choice. They chose to disobey and did not do what God had asked.

Even though their disobedience broke God’s heart, God didn’t stop loving Adam and Eve. God disciplined them, causing them to leave the garden and have to raise their own food, but God also cared for them, giving them clothes to wear and sending the rain and sunlight to make their crops grow.

God gave us the same gift of free will that Adam and Eve had. When we choose to obey, we show that we love God.

How can you obey God?
Name two things God has given you.
The man named his wife Eve because she is the mother of everyone who lives.

The Lord God made the man and his wife leather clothes and dressed them.

The Lord God said, "The human being has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. Now so he doesn't stretch out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat and live forever," the Lord God sent him out of the garden of Eden to farm the fertile land from which he was taken.

He drove out the human. To the east of the garden of Eden, he stationed winged creatures wielding flaming swords to guard the way to the tree of life.

Cain and Abel

The man Adam knew his wife Eve intimately. She became pregnant and gave birth to Cain, and said, "I have given life to a man with the Lord's help." She gave birth a second time to Cain's brother Abel. Abel cared for the flocks, and Cain farmed the fertile land.

Some time later, Cain presented an offering to the Lord from the land's crops while Abel presented his flock's oldest offspring with their fat. The Lord looked favorably on Abel and his sacrifice but didn't look favorably on Cain and his sacrifice. Cain became very angry and looked resentful.

The Lord said to Cain, "Why are you angry, and why do you look so resentful? If you do the right thing, won't you be accepted? But if you don't do the right thing, sin will be waiting at the door ready to strike! It will entice you, but you must rule over it."

Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field." When they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

The Lord said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?"

Cain said, "I don't know. Am I my brother's guardian?"

The Lord said, "What did you do? The voice of your brother's blood is crying to me from the ground. You are now cursed from the ground that opened its mouth to take your brother's blood from your hand. When you farm the fertile land, it will no longer grow anything for you, and you will become a roving nomad on the earth."

Cain said to the Lord, "My punishment is more than I can bear. Now that you've driven me away from the fertile land and I am hidden from your presence, I'm about to become a roving nomad on the earth, and anyone who finds me will kill me."

The Lord said to him, "It won't happen: anyone who kills Cain will be paid back seven times. The Lord put a sign on Cain so that no one who found him would assault him."

Cain left the Lord's presence, and he settled down in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Cain's descendants

Cain knew his wife intimately. She became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. Cain built a city and named the city after his son Enoch.

Irad was born to Enoch. Irad fathered Mehujael, Mehujael fathered Methushael, and Methushael fathered Lamech.

Tubal-cain’s sister was Naamah.

23 Lamech said to his wives, 24 Adah and Zillah, listen to my voice; wives of Lamech, pay attention to my words: I killed a man for wounding me, a boy for striking me; 25 so Cain will be paid back seven times and Lamech seventy-seven times." 26 Adam knew his wife intimately again, and she gave birth to a son. She named him Seth "because God has given me another child in place of Abel, whom Cain killed." 27 Seth also fathered a son and named him Enosh. At that time, people began to worship in the Lord's name.

did you know?

Methuselah was the oldest person ever to live. He didn’t become a father until he was 187 years old, and he lived until he was 969 years old. Even if people in ancient times had fewer than 365 days in their year, as some people think, that’s still really old.

Adam’s descendants

5 This is the record of Adam’s descendants. On the day God created humanity, he made them to resemble God and created them male and female. He blessed them and called them humanity on the day they were created. 8 When Adam was 130 years old, he became the father of a son in his image, resembling him, and named him Seth. 9 After Seth’s birth, Adam lived 800 years; he had other sons and daughters. 10 In all, Adam lived 930 years, and he died.

9 When Enosh was 90 years old, he became the father of Kenan. 10 After Kenan’s birth, Enosh lived 815 years, and he had other sons and daughters. 11 In all, Enosh lived 905 years, and he died.

12 When Kenan was 70 years old, he became the father of Mahalalel. 13 After the birth of Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years; and he had other sons and daughters. 14 In all, Kenan lived 910 years, and he died.

15 When Mahalalel was 65 years old, he became the father of Jared. 16 After Jared’s birth, Mahalalel lived 830 years; and he had other sons and daughters. 17 In all, Mahalalel lived 895 years, and he died.

18 When Jared was 162 years old, he became the father of Enoch. 19 After Enoch’s birth, Jared lived 800 years; and he had other sons and daughters. 20 In all, Jared lived 962 years, and he died.

21 When Enoch was 65 years old, he became the father of Methuselah. 22 Enoch walked with God. After Methuselah’s birth, Enoch lived 300 years; and he had other sons and daughters. 23 In all, Enoch lived 365 years. 24 Enoch walked with God and disappeared because God took him.

25 When Methuselah was 187 years old, he became the father of Lamech. 26 After Lamech’s birth, Methuselah lived 782 years; and he had other sons and daughters. 27 In all, Methuselah lived 969 years, and he died.

28 When Lamech was 182 years old, he became the father of a son and named him Noah, saying, “This one will give us relief from our hard work, from the pain in our hands, because of the fertile land that the Lord cursed.” 30 After Noah’s birth, Lamech lived 595 years; and he had other sons and daughters. 31 In all, Lamech lived 777 years, and he died.

32 When Noah was 500 years old, Noah became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

saw how beautiful these human women were. So they married the ones they chose. And the Lord said, “My breath will not remain in humans forever, because they are flesh. They will live one hundred twenty years. In those days, giants lived on the earth and also afterward, when divine beings and human daughters had sexual relations and gave birth to children. These were the ancient heroes, famous men.

Great flood
5 The Lord saw that humanity had become thoroughly evil on the earth and that every idea their minds thought up was always completely evil. And the Lord regretted making human beings on the earth, and he was heartbroken. So the Lord said, “I will wipe off of the land the human race that I’ve created: from human beings to livestock to the crawling things to the birds in the skies, because I regret I ever made them.” But as for Noah, the Lord approved of him.

6 These are Noah’s descendants. In his generation, Noah was a moral and exemplary man; he walked with God. 7 Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. In God’s sight, the earth had become corrupt and was filled with violence. 8 God saw that the earth was corrupt, because all creatures behaved corruptly on the earth.

9 God said to Noah, “The end has come for all creatures, since they have filled the earth with violence. I am now about to destroy them along with the earth, 10 so make a wooden ark. 11 Make the ark with nesting places and cover it inside and out with tar. 12 This is how you should make it: four hundred fifty feet long, seventy-five feet wide, and forty-five feet high. 13 Make a roof for the ark and complete it one foot from the top. 14 Put a door in its side. In the hold below, make the second and third decks.

15 I am now bringing the floodwaters over the earth to destroy everything under the sky that breathes. Everything on earth is about to take its last breath. 16 But I will set up my covenant with you. You will go into the ark together with your sons, your wife, and your sons’ wives. From all living things—from all creatures—you are to bring a pair, male and female, into the ark with you to keep them alive. 17 From each kind of bird, from each kind of livestock, and from each kind of everything that crawls on the ground—a pair from each will go in with you to stay alive.

18 Take some from every kind of food and stow it as food for you and for the animals.”

19 Noah did everything exactly as God commanded him.

7 The Lord said to Noah, “Go into the ark with your whole household, because among this generation I’ve seen that you are a moral man. 2 From every clean animal, take seven pairs, a male and his mate; and from every unclean animal, take one pair, a male and his mate; 3 and from the birds in the sky as well, take seven pairs, male and female, so that their offspring will survive throughout the earth. send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights. I will wipe off from the fertile land every living thing that I have made.”
6 Noah did everything the Lord commanded him.
7 Noah was 600 years old when the floodwaters arrived on earth. 8 Noah, his sons, his wife, and his sons’ wives with him entered the ark to escape the floodwaters. 9 From the clean and unclean animals, from the birds and everything crawling on the ground, 2 two of each, male and female, went into the ark with Noah, just as God commanded Noah. 10 After seven days, the floodwaters arrived on the earth. 11 In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day—on that day all the springs of the deep sea erupted, and the waters in the skies opened. 12 It rained upon the earth forty days and forty nights.
13 That same day, Noah, with his sons Shem, Ham, and Japheth, Noah’s wife, and his sons’ three wives, went into the ark. 14 They and every kind of animal—every kind of livestock, every kind that crawls on the ground, every kind of bird—15 they came to Noah and entered the ark, two of every creature that breathes. 16 Male and female of every creature went in, just as God had commanded him. Then the Lord closed the door behind them.
17 The flood remained on the earth for forty days. The waters rose, lifted the ark, and it rode high above the earth. 18 The waters rose and spread out over the earth.
The ark floated on the surface of the waters. 19 The waters rose even higher over the earth; they covered all of the highest mountains under the sky. 20 The waters rose twenty-three feet high, covering the mountains. 21 Every creature took its last breath:
the things crawling on the ground, birds, livestock, wild animals, everything swarming on the ground, and every human being.
22 Everything on dry land with life’s breath in its nostrils died. 23 God wiped away every living thing that was on the fertile land—from human beings to livestock to crawling things to birds in the sky. They were wiped off the earth. Only Noah and those with him in the ark were left. 24 The waters rose over the earth for one hundred fifty days.

8 God remembered Noah, all those alive,
and all the animals with him in the ark.
God sent a wind over the earth so that the waters receded. 9 The springs of the deep sea and the skies closed up. The skies held back the rain. 10 The waters receded gradually from the earth. After one hundred fifty days, the waters decreased; 11 and in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day, the ark came to rest on the Ararat mountains. 12 The waters decreased gradually until the tenth month, and on the first day of the tenth month the mountain peaks appeared.
6 After forty days, Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made. 7 He sent out a raven, and it flew back and forth until the waters over the entire earth had dried up.
8 Then he sent out a dove to see if the waters on all of the fertile land had subsided, but the dove found no place to set its foot. It returned to him in the ark since waters still covered the entire earth. Noah stretched out his hand, took it, and brought it back into the ark. 10 He waited seven more days and sent the dove out from the ark again. 11 The dove came back to him in the evening, grasping a green olive leaf in its beak. Then Noah knew that the waters were subsiding from the earth. 12 He waited seven more days and sent out the dove, but it didn’t come back to him again. 13 In Noah’s six hundred first year, on the first day of the first month, the waters dried up from the earth.
Noah removed the ark’s hatch and saw that the surface of the fertile land had dried up.
14 In the second month, on the seventeenth day, the earth was dry.
15 God spoke to Noah, 16 “Go out of the ark, you and your wife, your sons, and your sons’ wives with you. 17 Bring out with you all the animals of every kind—birds, livestock, everything crawling on the ground—so that they may populate the earth, be fertile, and multiply on the earth." So Noah went out of the ark with his sons, his wife, and his sons’ wives. All the animals, all the livestock, all the birds, and everything crawling on the ground, came out of the ark by their families.

God’s promise for the earth

20 Noah built an altar to the Lord. He took some of the clean large animals and some of the clean birds, and placed entirely burned offerings on the altar. 21 The Lord smelled the pleasing scent, and the Lord thought to himself, I will not curse the fertile land anymore because of human beings since the ideas of the human mind are evil from their youth. I will never again destroy every living thing as I have done.

22 As long as the earth exists, seedtime and harvest, cold and hot, summer and autumn, day and night will not cease.

God’s covenant with all life

9 God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, “Be fertile, multiply, and fill the earth. 2 All of the animals on the earth will fear you and dread you—all the birds in the skies, everything crawling on the ground, and all of the sea’s fish. They are in your power.

3 Everything that lives and moves will be your food. Just as I gave you the green grasses, I now give you everything. 4 However, you must not eat meat with its life, its blood, in it.

5 I will surely demand your blood for a human life.

from every living thing I will demand it.

From humans, from a man for his brother,
I will demand something for a human life.

6 Whoever sheds human blood,
by a human his blood will be shed;
for in the divine image
God made human beings.

7 As for you, be fertile and multiply.

Populate the earth and multiply in it." God said to Noah and to his sons with him, "I am now setting up my covenant with you, with your descendants, and with every living being with you—with the birds, with the large animals, and with all the animals of the earth, leaving the ark with you. I will set up my covenant with you so that never again will all life be cut off by floodwaters. There will never again be a flood to destroy the earth."

12 God said, "This is the symbol of the covenant that I am drawing up between me and you and every living thing with you, on behalf of every future generation. I have placed my bow in the clouds; it will be the symbol of the covenant between me and the earth. 14 When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds, 15 I will remember the covenant between me and you and every living being among all the creatures. Floodwaters will never again destroy all creatures. 16 The bow will be in the clouds, and upon seeing it I will remember the enduring covenant between God and every living being of all the earth’s creatures." God said to Noah, "This is the symbol of the covenant that I have set up between me and all creatures on earth."

What is a covenant?

Genesis 9:8-17, 15

Have you ever made a promise to someone? Maybe you have said to a friend, or to your mom or dad, “I promise, I won’t do that again” or “I promise I will...” A promise is like a covenant. The word covenant is used a lot in the Old Testament. After the flood, God made a covenant with Noah. You can read about it in Genesis 9. God promised Noah that God would help protect every living thing on the earth—people, plants, and animals—so they would thrive and not be destroyed.

Another example is in Genesis 15, where God made a covenant with Abraham and promised to give him land for his family. As you continue to read through the Old Testament, you will see this word a lot. Whenever God made a covenant with someone or with the Israelites, God promised to love them and expected them to be faithful and show love in return.

Shem's blessing and Canaan's curse

18 Noah's sons Shem, Ham, and Japheth came out of the ark. Now Ham was Canaan's father. 19 These were Noah's three sons, and from them the whole world was populated. 20 Noah, a farmer, made a new start and planted a vineyard. 21 He drank some of the wine, became drunk, and took off his clothes in his tent. 22 Ham, Canaan's father, saw his father naked and told his two brothers who were outside. 23 Shem and Japheth took a robe, threw it over their shoulders, walked backward, and covered their father naked without looking at him because they turned away. 24 When Noah woke up from his wine, he discovered what his youngest son had done to him. 25 He said,

“Cursed be Canaan:
the lowest servant
he will be for his brothers.”

26 He also said,
“Bless the Lord,
the God of Shem;
Canaan will be his servant.
27 May God give space 1 to Japheth;
he will live in Shem's tents,
and Canaan will be his servant.”

28 After the flood, Noah lived 350 years.
29 In all, Noah lived 950 years; then he died.

Rainbows Remind Us to Trust God  Genesis 9:12-17

If the sound of thunder exploding over your house makes you cover your ears in fear, you're not alone. Many people are afraid of storms—they can be really loud and scary! Now imagine what it would be like if it rained for more than a month.

Noah and his family had that scary experience. One day God told Noah to build a really big boat, and Noah did what God asked. Noah built an ark that he, his family, and a whole bunch of animals could live in. Then a wild and fierce rain came down. For forty days and nights it rained so hard that the earth flooded and all the humans and animals that were not in the ark died.

When they came out of the ark, God promised rain would never again flood the whole earth. As a sign of this promise, God caused a beautiful rainbow to appear in the sky. From that time, whenever a storm came, the rainbow was a reminder that Noah and his family could trust God and not be afraid.

Has someone ever broken a promise they made to you? People aren't always able to do what they say they will, but God is different. The next time you see a rainbow, remember that when God makes a promise, God will keep it.

What does a rainbow remind you of? Why?
Name two promises God made.
sons: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. 2Gomer's sons: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah. 3Javan's sons: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Rodanim. 4From these the island-nations were divided into their own countries, each according to their languages and their clans within their nations.

22Shem's sons: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram. 23Aram's sons: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash. 24Arpachshad fathered Shelah, and Shelah fathered Eber. 25To Eber were born two sons: The first was named Peleg, because during his lifetime the earth was divided. His brother's name was Joktan. 26Joktan fathered Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, 27Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, 28Obal, Abimael, Sheba, 29Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All of these were Joktan's sons. 30Their settlements extended from Mesha by way of Sephar, the eastern mountains. 31These are Shem's sons according to their clans, their languages, their lands, and their nations. 32These are the clans of Noah's sons according to their generations and their nations. From them the earth's nations branched out after the flood.

Origin of languages and cultures
11All people on the earth had one language and the same words. 2When they traveled east, they found a valley in the land of Shinar and settled there. 3They said to each other, “Come, let’s make bricks and bake them hard.” They used bricks for stones and asphalt for mortar. 4They said, “Come, let’s build for ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the sky, and let’s make a name for ourselves so that we won’t be dispersed over all the earth.”

5Then the Lord came down to see the city and the tower that the humans built. 6And the Lord said, “There is now one people and they all have one language. This is what they have begun to do, and now all that they plan to do will be possible for them. 7Come, let’s go down and mix up their language there so they won’t understand each other’s language.” 8Then the Lord dispersed them from there over all of the earth, and they stopped building the city. 9Therefore, it is named Babel, because there the Lord mixed up the language of all the earth; and from there the Lord dispersed them over all the earth.

born. Peleg lived 209 years; he had other sons and daughters.

10When Reu was 32 years old, he became the father of Serug. 11After Serug was born, Reu lived 207 years; he had other sons and daughters.

12When Serug was 30 years old, he became the father of Nahor. 13After Nahor was born, Serug lived 200 years; he had other sons and daughters.

14When Nahor was 29 years old, he became the father of Terah. 15After Terah was born, Nahor lived 119 years; he had other sons and daughters.

16When Terah was 70 years old, he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

17These are Terah’s descendants. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran became the father of Lot.

18Haran died while with his father Terah in his native land. 19In Ur of the Chaldeans, 20Abram and Nahor both married; Abram’s wife was Sarai, and Nahor’s wife was Milcah the daughter of Haran, father of both Milcah and Iscah. 21Milcah was unable to have children. 22Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot (son of Haran), and his son Abram’s wife, Sarai his daughter-in-law. They left Ur of the Chaldeans for the land of Canaan, and arriving at Haran, they settled there. 23Terah lived 205 years, and he died in Haran.

Abram’s family moves to Canaan

The Lord said to Abram, “Leave your land, your family, and your father’s household for the land that I will show you. 2I will make of you a great nation and will bless you. I will make your name respected, and you will be a blessing.

3I will bless those who bless you, those who curse you I will curse; all the families of earth will be blessed because of you.”

4Abram left just as the Lord told him, and Lot went with him. Now Abram was 75 years old when he left Haran. 5Abram took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all of their possessions, and those who became members of their household in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan. When they arrived in Canaan, Abram traveled through the land as far as the sacred place at Shechem, at the oak of Moreh. The Canaanites lived in the land at that time. 2 The Lord appeared to Abram and said, “I give this land to your descendants,” so Abram built an altar there to the Lord who appeared to him. 3 From there he traveled toward the mountains east of Bethel, and pitched his tent with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the Lord and worshipped in the Lord’s name. 4 Then Abram set out toward the arid southern plain, making and breaking camp as he went.

Abram and Sarai Visit Egypt

5 When a famine struck the land, Abram went down toward Egypt to live as an immigrant since the famine was so severe in the land. 6 Just before he arrived in Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, “I know you are a good-looking woman. 7 When the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife,’ and they will kill me but let you live. 8 So tell them you are my sister so that they will treat me well for your sake, and I will survive because of you.”

9 When Abram entered Egypt, the Egyptians saw how beautiful his wife was. 10 When Pharaoh’s princes saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh; and the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s household. 11 Things went well for Abram because of her: he acquired flocks, cattle, male donkeys, men servants, women servants, female donkeys, and camels. 12 Then the Lord struck Pharaoh and his household with severe plagues because of Abram’s wife Sarai. 13 So Pharaoh summoned Abram and said, “What’s this you’ve done to me? Why didn’t you tell me she was your wife? 14 Why did you say, ‘She’s my sister,’ so that I made her my wife? Now, here’s your wife. Take her and go!” 15 Pharaoh gave his men orders concerning Abram, and they expelled him with his wife and everything he had.

Abram and Lot Separate

13 Abram went up from Egypt toward the arid southern plain with his wife, with everything he had, and with Lot. 2 Abram was very wealthy in livestock, silver, and gold. 3 Abram traveled, making and breaking camp, from the arid southern plain to Bethel and to the sacred place there, where he had first pitched his tent between Bethel and Ai, 4 that is, to the place at which he had earlier built the altar. There he worshipped in the Lord’s name. 5 Now Lot, who traveled with Abram, also had flocks, cattle, and tents. 6 They had so many possessions between them that the land couldn’t support both of them. They could no longer live together. 7 Conflicts broke out between those herding Abram’s livestock and those herding Lot’s livestock. At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites lived in the land.

8 Abram said to Lot, “Let’s not have disputes between me and you and between our herders since we are relatives. 9 Isn’t the whole land in front of you? Let’s separate. If you go north, I will go south; and if you go south, I will go north.” 10 Lot looked up and saw the entire Jordan Valley. All of it was well irrigated, like the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as far as Zoar (this was before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah). 11 So Lot chose for himself the entire Jordan Valley. Lot set out toward the east, and they separated from each other. 12 Abram settled in the land of Canaan, and Lot settled near the cities of the valley and pitched his tent close to Sodom. 13 The citizens of Sodom were very evil and sinful against the Lord.

the bits of dust on the earth, then they could also count your descendants. 12 Stand up and walk around through the length and breadth of the land because I am giving it to you.” 13 So Abram packed his tent and went and settled by the oaks of Mamre in Hebron. There he built an altar to the Lord.

Abram rescues Lot

While Amraphel was king of Shinar, Elasar’s King Arioch, Elam’s King Chedorlaomer, and Goiim’s King Tidal 2 declared war on Sodom’s King Bera, Gomorrah’s King Birsha, Admah’s King Shinab, Zeboiim’s King Shemeber, and the king of Bela, that is, Zoar. 3 These latter kings formed an alliance in the Siddim Valley (that is, the Dead Sea). 4 For twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they revolted. 5 In the fourteenth year, Chedorlaomer and the kings of his alliance came and attacked the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim, 6 and the Horites in the mountains of Seir as far as El-paran near the desert. 7 Then they turned back, came to En-mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and attacked the territory of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who lived in Hazazon-tamar.

Then the kings of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zeboiim, and Bera (that is, Zoar) took up battle positions in the Siddim Valley 9 against King Chedorlaomer of Elam, King Tidal of Goiim, King Amraphel of Shinhar, and King Arioch of Ellasar, four kings against five.

Now the Siddim Valley was filled with tar pits. When the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah retreated, they fell into them; and the rest fled to the mountains. 11 They took everything from Sodom and Gomorrah, including its food supplies, and left. 12 They also took Lot, Abram’s nephew who lived in Sodom, and everything he owned, and took off. 13 When a survivor arrived, he told Abram the Hebrew, who lived near the oaks of the Amorite Mamre, who was the brother of Eshcol and Aner, Abram’s treaty partners.

14 When Abram heard that his relative had been captured, he took all of the loyal men born in his household, three hundred eighteen, and went after them as far as Dan. 15 During the night, he and his servants divided themselves up against them, attacked, and chased them to Hobah, north of Damascus. 16 He brought back all of the loot and property, together with his relative Lot and Lot’s property, wives, and people.

Abram blessed by Melchizedek

17 After Abram returned from his attack on Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom came out to the Shaveh Valley (that is, the King’s Valley) to meet him. 18 Now Melchizedek the king of Salem and the priest of El Elyon 19 had brought bread and wine, 20 and he blessed him, “Bless Abram by El Elyon, creator of heaven and earth; 21 bless El Elyon, who gave you the victory over your enemies.” Abram gave Melchizedek one-tenth of everything. 22 Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the people and take the property for yourself.”

Giving a Tenth

Giving Back to God  Genesis 14:17-21
An important part of many church services is the offering, when people give money to be used for God’s service. Giving an offering is a way to express thanks and gratitude for all that God has done. In this passage, Abram gave King Melchizedek one-tenth of everything. We still follow this model today by giving to the church one-tenth of what we have. With each offering, we show our thanks to God and are part of creating God’s kingdom here on earth.

22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I promised the Loro, El Elyon, creator of heaven and earth, 23 that I wouldn’t take even a thread or a sandal strap from anything that was yours so that you couldn’t say, ‘I’m the one who made Abram rich.’ 24 The only exception is that the young men may keep whatever they have taken to eat, and the men who went with me—Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre—may keep their share."

God's covenant with Abram

15 After these events, the Lord's word came to Abram in a vision, "Don't be afraid, Abram. I am your protector. Your reward will be very great."

2 But Abram said, "Lord God, what can you possibly give me, since I still have no children? The head of my household is Eliezer, a man from Damascus." 3 He continued, "Since you haven't given me any children, the head of my household will be my heir."

4 The Lord's word came immediately to him, "This man will not be your heir. Your heir will definitely be your very own biological child." 5 Then he brought Abram outside and said, "Look up at the sky and count the stars if you think you can count them. He continued, "This is how many children you will have." 6 Abram trusted the Lord, and the Lord recognized Abram's high moral character.

7 He said to Abram, "I am the Lord, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as your possession."

10 But Abram said, "Lord God, how do I know that I will actually possess it?"

9 He said, "Bring me a three-year-old female calf, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a dove, and a young pigeon." 10 He took all of these animals, split them in half, and laid the halves facing each other, but he didn't split the birds. 11 When vultures swooped down on the carcasses, Abram waved them off. 12 After the sun set, Abram slept deeply. A terrifying and deep darkness settled over him.

Does a covenant last forever? Genesis 15

Covenants between God and God's people were always started by God. In a covenant with Abram, God promised to give Abram many descendants and to give those descendants land. Abram agreed to leave on a long journey with his family, not knowing what would happen or where he would end up. He did this because he believed and trusted God. In response to his trust, God made a covenant with Abram and his descendants. Each time God made a covenant with God's people, God promised to be their God and they would be God's People (Exod 6:7, Deut 23:13). No matter how many times God's people forgot God, God always remembered the covenant God had made with them. God renewed this promise many times and continued to love all humankind just as God loves us today.

13 Then the Lord said to Abram, "Have no doubt that your descendants will live as immigrants in a land that isn't their own, where they will be oppressed slaves for four hundred years. 14 But after I punish the nation they serve, they will leave it with great wealth. 15 As for you, you will join your ancestors in peace and be buried after a good long life. 16 The fourth generation will return here since the Amorites' wrongdoing won't have reached its peak until then."

17 After the sun had set and darkness had deepened, a smoking vessel with a fiery flame passed between the split-open animals. 18 That day the Lord cut a covenant with Abram: "To your descendants I give this land, from Egypt's river to the great Euphrates, together with the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

Hagar and the Ishmaelites' origins

16 Sarai, Abram's wife, had not been able to have children. Since she had an Egyptian servant named Hagar, 2 Sarai said to Abram, "The Lord has kept me from giving birth, so go to my servant. Maybe she will provide me
